

The Bluegrass Association of Insurance Women is proud to invite you to “Kick Up Your Heels” in Bluegrass Country.

It is our opportunity to show you some southern hospitality.

First is the registration. Please note we have kept the registration fee the same as last year. It's our way of fighting against inflation.

Our room rate at the Marriott Griffin Gate Resort is also affordable; $115 a night. The rooms are lovely and the ambiance of the hotel can't be beat.

We are offering a variety of education classes; there should be something for everyone.

There is even a chance for you to go off the beaten track! We have set up an optional tour of the Bluegrass. The cost is $65.00 for 2 ½ hrs of horses, farms and of course southern hospitality.

We have also gone back in time a bit for a couple of the events. The luncheon on Saturday will honor our local Presidents. The banquet on Saturday night is the Awards Banquet. And yes....one lucky person will win $1000 at the banquet on Saturday night!

There are also “event t-shirts” available to commemorate your visit with us. Order more than one. The conference begins on March 17 and one of your color choices is Irish Green.

So don't hesitate. Come to our conference for the meeting, education, and fun. After it is over; the fellowship goes home with you
